

Honour House Brochure

Updated Text – Draft for approval
13 June 2012

Front Panel:

Honour House is a refuge, a home away from home for Canadian Forces personnel, first responders and their families to stay while healing occurs

Inside Panel 1: WHO WE SERVE

Honour House is a temporary home for our Canadian Forces personnel, veterans, first responders (ambulance paramedics, firefighters and police) and their families while these personnel are receiving medical care in Metro Vancouver.

Guests must be referred by their service organization and may reside at Honour House for up to 30 days at no charge.

Inside Panel 2: A HOME AWAY FROM HOME

Located on a quiet tree-lined street in New Westminister, Honour House is fully modernized and wheelchair accessible. With 10 private bedrooms plus a shared kitchen, living room and other common spaces, Honour House provides a comfortable family-oriented environment within a park-like property.

Inside Panel 3: HOW CAN I GET INVOLVED

No matter how big or small, your donation, gift-in-kind or volunteer effort will make a difference.

Please make your cheque payable to Honour House Society and send it to:

Fold-in outside panel: HONOURING THEIR SERVICE

Honour House Society was formed to support our Canadian Forces personnel, veterans and first responders by providing temporary accommodation for those who have served on our behalf in life-threatening situations. With comfortable surroundings, caring professional staff and dedicated volunteers, Honour House helps relieve the emotional and financial stresses that come with illness, injury and rehabilitation.

Back Panel:

Honour House Society gratefully acknowledges the following partners:
